Daniel Post Christened

Daniel Wallace Post, six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Post, was christened last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock a.m. by Rev. Hugh R. Percy at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The godparents were Mrs. George Post, the baby's aunt, Robert Hopkins, uncle of little Daniel, and Robert Tolson. The baby was dressed in a blue and white knit suit.

Following the ceremony, a champagne brunch was served at the James Post home, 3118 Sonoma, which was attended by all the guests attending the christening. The table centerpiece consisted of pink and white carnations and pink champagne was served with the buffet.

Those in the party were Mr. George Hawksworth, of Redondo Beach, the great grandfather of the baby; Mrs. Dorothy Post and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hopkins, the grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. George Post, aunt and uncle of the child; Robert Tolson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Keller, the parents, and Daniel's sister, Sally.

MRS. ROBERT C. HILL
... March Bride

Connie Long-Robert C. Hill Wed in Las Vegas March 1

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Long, 1753 259th St., Lomita, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Connie Rae to Robert Carl Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Hill, of Compton.

The wedding was solemnized at the Gretna Green Wedding Chapel in Las Vegas on March 1, at 8 p.m.

For her wedding, the bride wore a sheath of champagne lace over taffeta and white accessories. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Pat Sias wearing a blue wool sheath and red accessories and a red rosebud corsage served as the bride's attendant. Mr. Sias was the best man. The Rev. Whitehead officiated at the marriage.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas and are now at home at 15727 S. White Ave., Compton.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School in 1956, after which she attended and was graduated from the Chicago College of Beauty. The bridegroom received his education in the Compton schools.

Lovely Party Is Courtesy For Visitor

Pink camellias on a pink table cloth set the spring theme for the lovely bridge-luncheon given Friday afternoon by Mrs. William E. Grubbs home to honor Mrs. North, in honor of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Shirk, who was visiting from Kansas City, Mo.

Friends gathering at the Grubb home to honor Mrs. Shirk were Mrs. Robert Tripplitt, Robert Klink, Walter Levy, Phillip Halloran, Parke Montague, Calvin Blakley, Gerald Eastham, Burton Easley, Walter Clausing, Lee McCoy, Joseph Helphand, William Boswell, John Schwartz, Frank Davirro, Robert R. Dexter, William Patterson, and Mrs. Edith Ratcliffe, Mrs. Grubbs' mother.

A family dinner honoring Mrs. Shirk was given on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davirro, 2921 Palos Verdes Dr., North. Those enjoying a spaghetti dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Grubbs and their children, David, Mark, Meredith and Peter; Mrs. Ratcliffe, and the Davirro children, the twins Garry and Kerry, Johnny and Marylou.

BUSY MAKING PLANS... for the annual Faculty Wives Fashion Show at El Camino College are Mrs. Will Scoggins of Torrance, Mrs. Eugene Timpe of Hawthorne, and Mrs. Stanley F. Wilson of Gardena. The event, "Around the World in 80 Days," will occur in the Campus Center of the college March 21. The public is invited. PIPERS SING AT YMCA DINNER

"The Pipers," Torrance Junior Woman's Club choral group, sang at the victory dinner for the YMCA on Tuesday evening at the YWCA. The dinner is in celebration of the successful completion of a drive to raise funds for a new YMCA building. The Pipers are directed by Mrs. Allen E. Hofferber and the other members include Mrs. Earle Peterson, C. L. Briner, Richard Brundin, Sid Gans, and James Van Dyke.

Faculty Wives to Feature Travel in Show March 21

"Around the World in Eighty Days" will be the theme of the annual spring fashion show to be presented by the El Camino Faculty Wives Club in the Campus Center Thursday, March 21, at 8 p.m.

The show featuring versatile clothes that will pack and travel well will include a variety of new fashions for street wear, dinner parties, business functions, plays, and everyday attire.

College women and the general public are extended a special invitation to attend the event, Mrs. Don H. Bradford, chairman of this year's annual show announced. Tickets are now available at the Campus Book Store. Clothes and models for the showing will be furnished through the assistance of Mrs. Edward L. Schwartz. Other models will include faculty wives and El Camino students. Miss Belgium, participant in the Miss Universe Contest is expected to appear as one of the two representatives of a swim suit company in modeling its line of new summer wear.

Mrs. Eugene F. Timpe, president of the Faculty Wives Club states that all the proceeds from the show will go to the Student Loan Fund. The fund is for the purpose of assisting needy students in furthering their college education by lending small sums of money without interest. A large attendance of college students and men and women of the El Camino area is anticipated for the fashion show this year, Mrs. Bradford stated.

"Spring Promenade" Guild's Fashion Show Set April 9

"Spring Promenade" was the theme selected by St. Gerard's Guild of St. Margaret Mary's parish for their fashion show to be held April 9, at 8 p.m., at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave. Plans were made for the event at a guild meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frederick Steinbroner on Grand Summit Rd. last week.

New spring fashions will be provided by two Torrance shops and one Lomita shop. Models from a Lomita studio will parade the fashions.

Mrs. Joseph Boylan, chairman, will serve as commentator. On the ticket committee are Mrs. Joseph Orsini, Mrs. Leo Renaud, Mrs. Robert Dies, Mrs. Robert Clothworthy is in charge of decorations, and Mrs. Roland Weber will handle the party favors.

Models will be directed by Mrs. Leo Salisbury and Mrs. Peter Zamperini and Mrs. Frederick Steinbroner is in charge of the door prizes.

Mrs. Douglas Hart will serve as narrator and Mrs. Leo Salisbury will be the emcee.

Thirty-five door prizes have been donated by local merchants. Mrs. Francis Davidson is in charge of background music for the fashion parade. An entertaining program "Easter Dances" will be given by the Dotty Dee Studio of Lomita.

Five models will display fashions for women, there will be three children modeling and two male models. Tickets are now on sale, according to Mrs. Joseph Boylan publicity chairman. They must be purchased before April 1, and may be secured by calling any of the committee members.
